Great news for us diners as Bob Kirschner and his staff at the Broken Egg are now serving dinners in addition to their fantastic breakfasts and lunches. They also have a full bar at the Lakewood Ranch location so make it a longer lunch and livelier dinner here! Last summer they reopened their Siesta Key location at 140 Avenida Messina (346-2750) and many of their loyal patrons were glad to see them after a change of location. Their second location 6115 Exchange Way in Lakewood Ranch

(388-6898) is very popular as well with Patrick and Dawn handling the operation there with a welcoming smile.

Both locations have local artist's work for viewing and sale, which adds a certain charm to the restaurant. Local celebrity Dick Vitale also has merchandise available in the gift shop. The patio dining at both restaurants is where other celebrity sightings occur! The breakfast and lunch items are what have kept the customers coming back since 1985. Their "Omelettes of the Keys" feature a variety of delicious, fluffy omelettes filled with all sorts of delectable goodies. Pancakes, French Toast, cereals, wraps, sandwiches and more are all a pleasure to savor. Dinners are now served on Siesta Key every Wednesday through Saturday from 5:30 to 9pm with many entrees very reasonably priced and a "comfort food menu" Tuesday through Sunday at LWR. There is a kid's menu as well.

Don't forget their bakery, desserts, cookies and pies for take-away or even order online. Catering is another service of the Broken Egg and celebrations can be planned on or off premises. Visit their website at www.thebrokenegg.com for more information.
